The question debated last Friday night was "Resolved that the Warrior is of more service to his country than the inventor." The debaters were Spears Roberson, John R. Roberson, W. S. Pryor, affirmative; Chas. Curtis, H. E. Tate and Oscar Campbell, negative. The judges were Mrs. Hall, Miss Nora Lasater and Mr. W. S. Minter, who decided in favor of the negative. Then a very spicy paper was read, the production of Misses Hattie O'Neal and Emma Gabel. The election of officers consumed much time and resulted as follows: H. E. Tate, President; Sam Roberson, Vice President; Miss Hattie O'Neal, Secretary; Spears Roberson, Treasurer.

The program for next Friday night is as follows:

Opening Song School Choir, Reading, Jesse Coppinger, Debate, Resolved that there is more in luck than pluck. Affirmative Sam Roberson, Albert Lasater, H. E. Tate; Negative, Chas. Curtis, Spears Roberson, W. S. Pryor.

Music, by Mr. W. C. Hill and Miss Louise Hill.

Paper, by Misses Amanda Curtis and Althea Spears.

Union Grove.

Special to the News.

Editor News:—I thought as I haven't very much knitting or anything to do this evening, and haven't seen anything from Union Grove in a long time I thought I would write, and I hope I will see Union Grove locals in this week's issue of the News. I think Union Grove just as worthy as Caroline's Chapel, and there are locals from there nearly every week. I guess everybody has been so busy with corn gathering and 'later diggin' is the reason they forgot the News and the correspondence has gone to sleep.

Mrs. H. Vinzant and daughter went to Whitwell last Tuesday shopping.

Farmers are all very busy gathering corn.

W. C. Moore is getting along fine with his singing school at the Chapel.

Miss Kate Lewis and Miss Olive Vinzant, two of the belles of Ridgedale, happened to a sad accident the other night at the singing school. They fell down the steps. Everybody is sorry that Miss Kate sprained her foot and that Miss Olive hurt her arm.

William Shumake and David Pitman were out horsebacking Thursday.

G. W. Lewis, of Tennessee river was visiting his brother D. D. Lewis last week.

Eph Pitman and Green Layne was in Victoria Saturday at W. A. Turner's new store.

Mr. Sidney Ketter, of South Pittsburg spent the evening with his best girl near Caroline Chapel Sunday.

Miss Jennie Layne was visiting G. Layne and family last week.

There was a grand corn husking and a nice play at U. G. Harris's Saturday night.

There was a large crowd at Sunday School Sunday at Union Grove.

Bro. Crenshaw held prayer meeting at Jackson Webb's Saturday night.

Mark Brown says Mr. Jordan has some very fine timber in his yard.

J. L. Lewis spent Sunday evening in Victoria.

Madame Rumer says there will be a wedding in Union Grove soon.

Mrs. Mattie Jordan went to Victoria Friday shopping.

Dennis Harris was at Sardis Sunday.

I know everybody will wonder who has taken time to write the news from Union Grove, and I know that they would be glad to see more news from this place, but I will not write any more this time so you will have room to put in these items and locals in your paper. I hope I will see the news from Union Grove in this week's paper.

UNCLE SAM.

BRAVE MEN FALL.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, I-daville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. 'It did more to give me new strength and a good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life.' Only 50c at W. B. Ketter's, Whitwell. Every bottle guaranteed.

Prices on Paper...

Do not always enable one to determine whether the articles advertised are good value or not, and the majority of storekeepers, in advertising, claim to have the largest stocks and greatest bargains that have ever been heard of before. Burrough's Chapel.

Special to the News.

Aunt Sallie Levan, we learn, is still improving. She has the good will and respect of all her neighbors.

James Campbell has a nice lot of young fruit trees that he is going to have put out on the Wash Pryor place on the mountain.

Atwood Nelson, who went some time back to Limerock, Ala., returned home last Sunday with a pair of sore feet and aching limbs.

Mr. T. A. Burroughs is turning land for his next year's crop.

Mrs. Watley and Miss Ginnie Watley, went to Jasper last Saturday on business.

Mr. N. F. Campbell went to Jasper last Tuesday on business.

We learn that some one has been helping themselves to Mr. James Barnett's chickens.

Mr. Dee McCollough, of Tracy City, was out to see his mother, Mrs. Sallie Levan, last Saturday.

One would suppose by looking at Fred Campbell's hog that he would have bacon for next year.

Some meddlesome person or persons seem to take a great delight in breaking down doors in this vicinity. The front door to the house N. F. Campbell moved out of some time ago was broken down last Thursday night.

Mr. W. Martin from Curtisville, paid Mr. James Campbell and family a welcome visit last Sunday.

Miss Minnie Campbell says the News is a welcome visitor and would be lost without it.

Charley Campbell came home from his work last Saturday accompanied by Scott Blansett, one of the clever and industrious men of this vicinity. Charley says getting out cross ties is an excellent blood purifier. It strengthens the nerves, puts vim and vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body, and tones up the stomach for plenty of corn dodgers, fat meat and strong coffee.

Mr. John Potter and family moved to some point above Jasper last week.

T. A. Burroughs and N. F. Campbell hauled wood for Uncle Ritt Lane Tuesday.
